"Fiddler on the Roof"

Director: Connie Omans

March 11-20

Set in the small village of Anatevka, Russia in 1905, "Fiddler on the Roof" is a touching story of a poor dairyman who tries to instill in his five daughters the traditions of his community in the face of changing social mores.

Rich in historical and ethnic details, this piece cuts across barriers of race, class, nationality and religion, leaving audiences crying tears of laughter, joy and sadness. A live orchestra will perform the music for this "lesson in matchmaking."

General Admission:
$7 per person per show

Show times:

7:30pm Fridays & Saturdays,
2:00pm Saturdays & Sundays

"The Pajama Game"

Explore the dangers of workplace romance in this fast-paced, bright and brassy, Broadway favorite. Conflict arises between management and labor as they negotiate issues of slow production and low wages at the Sleep-Tite Pajama Factory.

Additionally, things steam up between the sexes, with injuries, flirting, jealousies and love. The issue till the end is, will there be a grievance or a union?
